HOBBY STONE

MERLIN'S MAGIC HOBBY STONE

Merlin's Magic™ Hobby Stone was designed with the hobbyist in mind and can be used for a multitude of purposes. This unique flowstone pours thin into molds without vibration, yielding a bubble-free cast. Merlin's Magic™ far exceeds the strength of conventional hobby plasters at 12,500 psi, while offering a dense, smooth result. This hobby stone is perfect for making highly detailed casts, as it has a low expansion rate of 0.08% and cures in about 15 minutes.

- Flowable stone; pours thin
- Bubble-free, smooth casts without vibration
- Low expansion for achieving a high level of detail
